Yawn---
Lanlan, how about have breakfast with me in the hotel cafeteria You can know some leaders too
Ah? No, I can't handle occasions like that
Why not?
Maybe some leader will fancy you and hire you as his secretary in the provincial capital!
Hey! Don't say something like that!

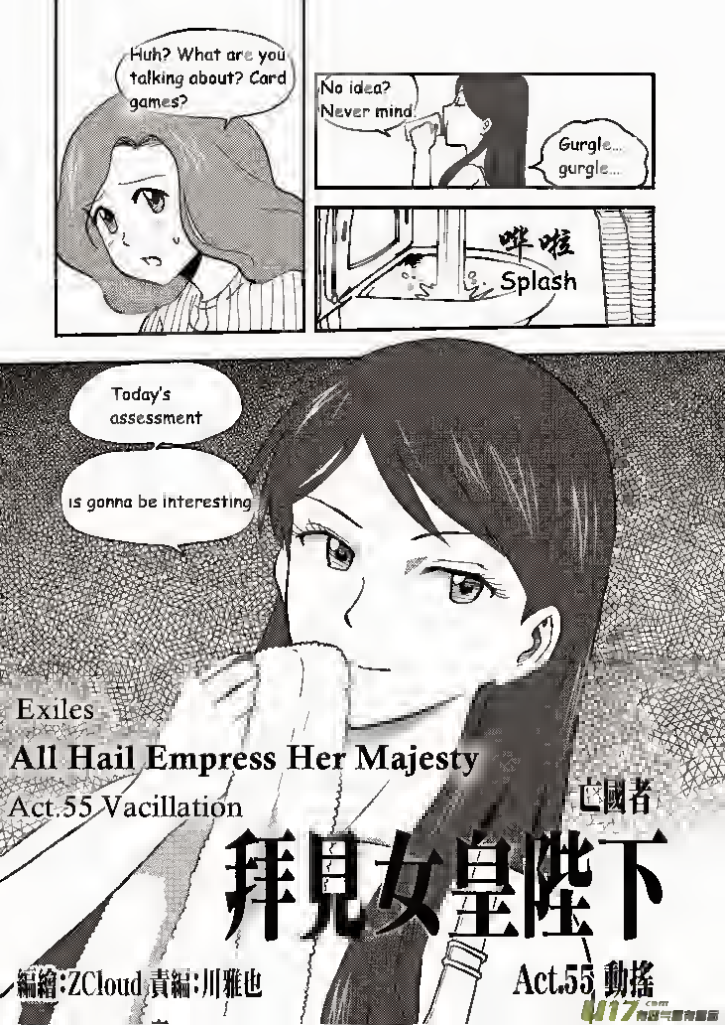
What is the 'bomb'



Huh? What are you talking about? Card games?
No idea? Never mind.
Gurgle... gurgle...
哗啦
Splash
Today's assessment
is gonna be interesting

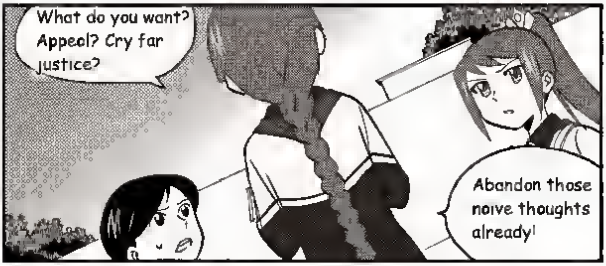
Why...council president, you..
I advise you to give up meaningless actions!



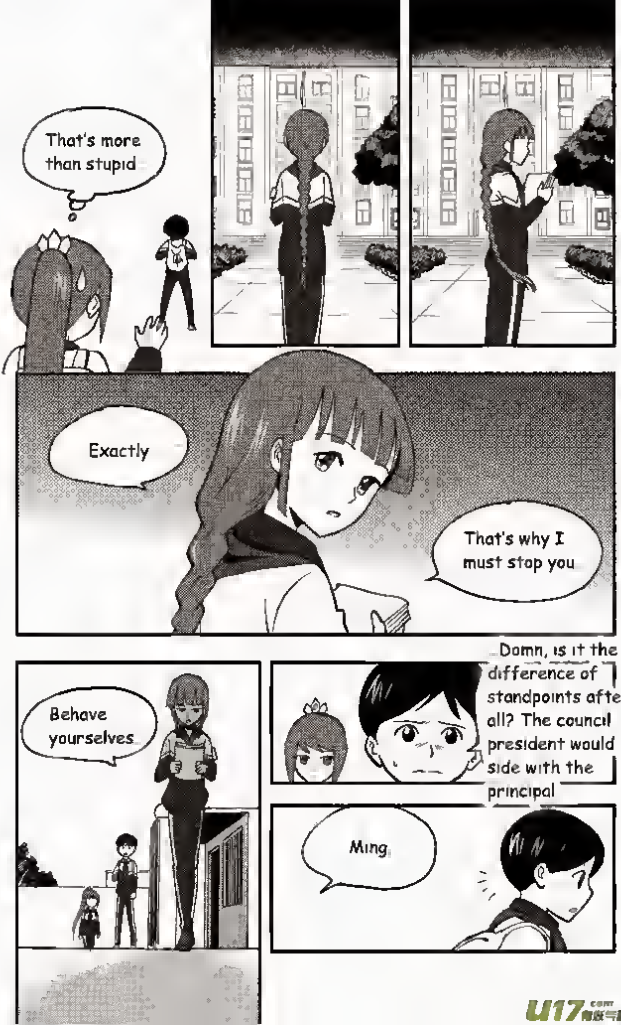
What do you want? Appeal? Cry for justice?
Abandon those naive thoughts already!

In addition, what do you think about other schoolmates' efforts?
Are you going to let them all go wasted?!

You'd better behave well in your current classes, and forget about your petty niggling.

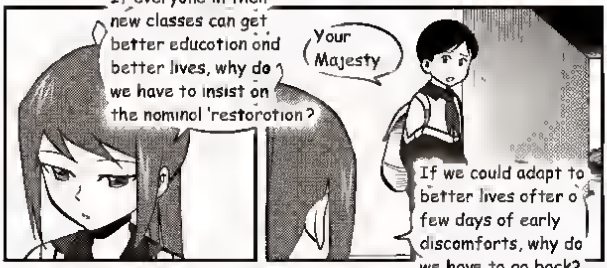
How could Council president
You
You know we're disbanded for no good reason right?!
Wait!
You know there's something fishy but ignored it, you were not like that before!
Council President Ling!

T/N This is not a literal translation Go learn Chinese for precise meaning



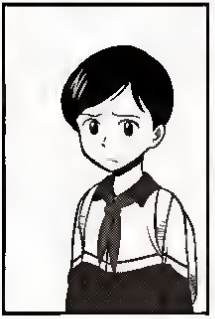
That's more than stupid
Exactly
That's why I must stop you
Behave yourselves
Damn, is it the difference of standpoints after all? The council president would side with the principal
Ming,

I've been thinking since yesterday...
The chaos we're going to make, is it correct?
Eh?

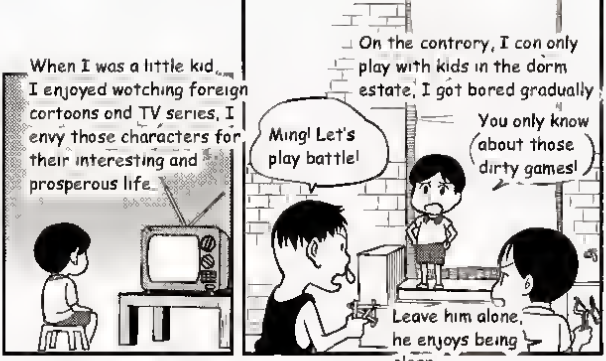


If everyone in their new classes can get better educotion ond better lives, why do we have to insist on the nominol 'restorotion'?
Your Majesty
If we could adapt to better lives ofter o few days of early discomforts, why do we hove to go bock?

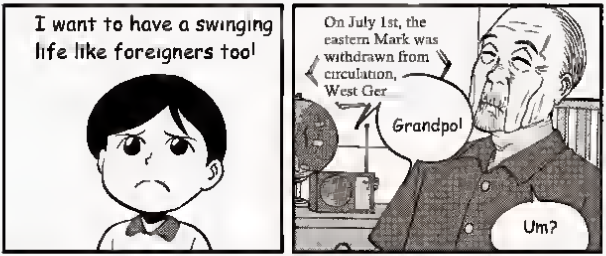
How do you think?



Your Majesty, allow me to tell you a short story

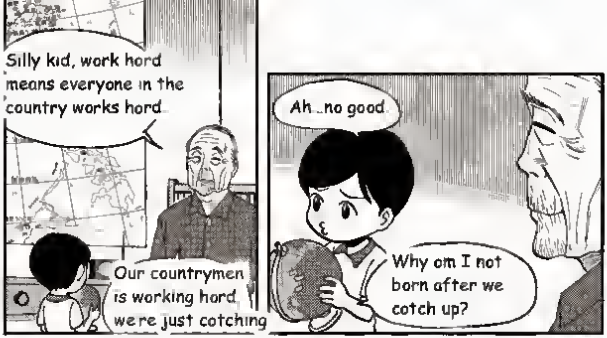


When I was a little kid, I enjoyed watching foreign cartoons and TV series. I envy those characters for their interesting and prosperous life.
On the contrary, I can only play with kids in the dorm estate. I got bored gradually.
Ming! Let's play battle!
You only know about those dirty games!
Leave him alone, he enjoys being clean.



I want to have a swinging life like foreigners too!
On July 1st, the eastern Mark was withdrawn from circulation, West Ger
Grandpa!
Um?

Why can't we buy those fancy toys like the foreign kids on TV?
Because we're poor
Why are we poor?
Because our country is poor overall.
Why are their country rich then?
Eh... maybe they work hard
Why don't our country work hard then?



Silly kid, work hord means everyone in the country works hord.
Our countrymen is working hord, we're just catching up
Ah...no good.
Why am I not born after we catch up?

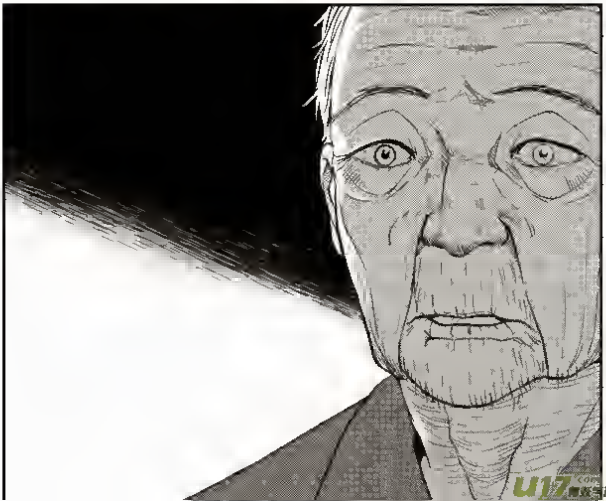
Ah, this currently powerful country used to bully our country right.
Yes, they wanted to carry us off.
If we're token owoy, we'll be thot country's people right?
Eh...possibly

Ah, what a pity, why are we not taken?
If we're that country's people, I'll have good toys everyday

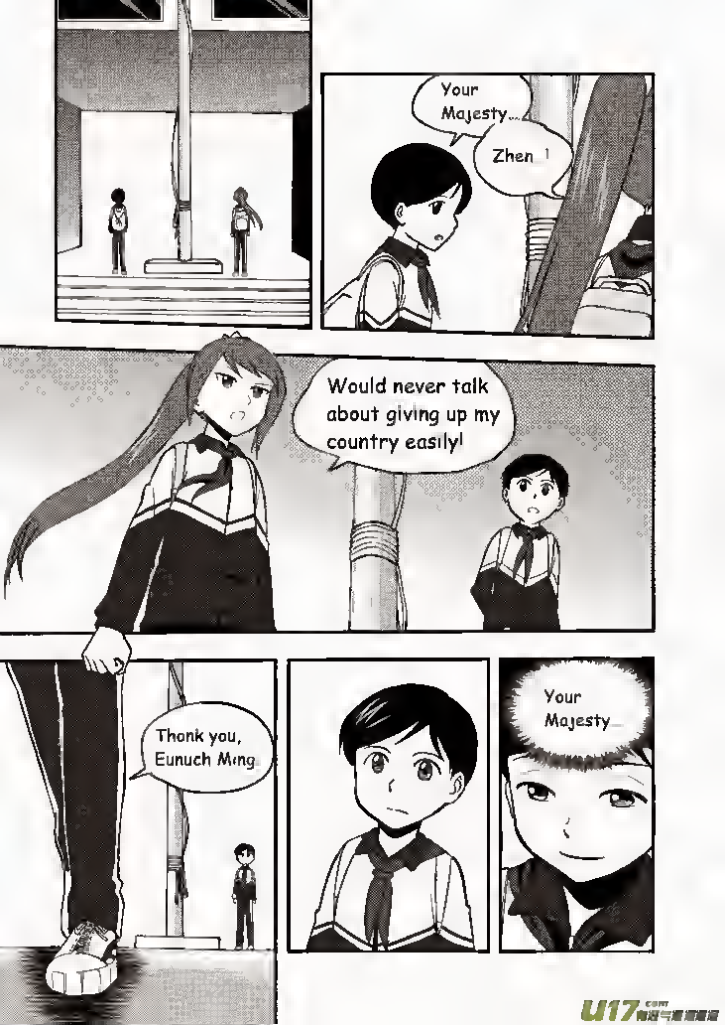


啪!!
Slap!!
*Crying
哇
Sorry, Grandpa should not beat you...
It's all our fault, your grandpa and other adults could give you a good life after all those days
Sorry...

But remember
Good life must be earned with your own hands
Other people may give you something to send you away from rioting
But they will not treat us like humon
.....
It's in tatters
Your grandpa's generation could only
Take this country back from other people
The future depends on generations of your parents and you

Don't give up this country

Grandpo passed owoy soon ofter
We didn't get subjugoted' becous we were decodent
On the contrary, we're making progress ropidly
We're framed up, disbonded by wrang reosans
Thot itself is unforgivoble
If we occept aur fote like this, and settle for sa-called better lives
Grodually become used ta the benefits we get out af mistokes
Whot kind of people would we became
After we grow up?



Your Majesty...
Zhen
Would never talk about giving up my country easily!
Thank you, Eunuch Ming
Your Majesty...

Although I said I can't forgive mistakes...
But actually
我们这个“国家”本身，就是由“错误”组成的啊……
Our 'country per se, is made of 'mistakes
However, even so...
这仍是一个……
It is still a
'matherland' that worth me fighting for!!
我可以为之而战“祖国”！！
